OTHER INTERNATIONAL PROGRAMS

Puente Program

Academic Semester, Intensive Language & Internship

The Universidad de Congreso offers the Puente Program, a one-semester academic and cultural experience in Mendoza. It includes three courses taught in English for international students, one course called Internship Experience featuring two months of professional practice, and the Spanish for Foreigners course. The program also provides homestay accommodation with local families — including a private room and two daily meals — cultural activities and excursions, and personalized support from a resident director. Students from non-Spanish-speaking partner universities are eligible to enroll in these courses at a very favorable cost. For more details, please contact: programapuente@ucongreso.edu.ar

OTHER INTERNATIONAL PROGRAMS

Medical Spanish and Medical Shadowing in Mendoza

The Universidad de Congreso offers an intensive five-week program in Medical Spanish for international students, a course on the Argentine Healthcare System taught by professionals, and shadowing experiences in hospitals with rotations across different departments.

OTHER INTERNATIONAL PROGRAMS

Tailor-Made Programs

The Universidad de Congreso offers a six-week program for students interested in deepening their knowledge of current issues and practices in Argentina's wine and olive industries.

Examinations	Exchange students must adhere to the dates established in the Academic Calendar, just like regular students. Final exams are held during the last three weeks of each semester. Exam dates are communicated three weeks in advance and cannot be changed by students. Final exams are conducted in person and require prior completion of the corresponding course. Universidad de Congreso does not authorize remote exams, except within virtual mobility programs.
Transcript (date it will be dispatched)	The academic transcript is sent approximately one month after the last day of final exams. This process is handled directly between universities and is not sent individually to students.

Housing	Universidad de Congreso does not offer on-campus housing. Exchange students may request a list of housing options from the Office of International Cooperation. This list includes homestays, student residences, and apartment rental services. Students are responsible for arranging their own accommodation.
Estimated Monthly Living Costs (including housing)	The cost of living varies depending on the type and location of housing, as well as personal spending habits. On average, monthly living expenses range from USD 400 to 800.
Immigration Procedure	Our office assists with the processing of the Electronic Entry Registration (TIE 24H) or consular visa, although this is a personal and mandatory procedure for all students entering Universidad de Congreso.
Transfer-in	Our office can coordinate transportation from the airport or bus terminal to the student's accommodation through a trusted private car service (remis). The fee is fixed and communicated at the time of booking. The cost is covered by the student.
Buddy System Program	We offer a volunteer student program designed to support exchange students in integrating into both university life and the city of Mendoza.
